LIVING

Melbourne has many rental options, from houses, apartments, townhouses and share options. Rental prices vary from each suburb.

Centrally in the CBD, 2 bedroom apartments range from $400 to $700 per week. In the outer suburbs, 3–4 bedroom houses range from $350 to $600 per week. Share options are a bit cheaper, varying from $170 to $350 per week.

www.gumtree.com.au is a great site to visit when looking for rental properties (shared or on your own). www.flatmates.com.au is also a great site to find share accommodation.

Our office is situated in Port Melbourne, 15 minutes South West of the Melbourne CBD.

PUBLIC TRANSPORT

Myki is Melbourne's reusable travel card. Myki allows you to travel on all trains, trams and buses in Melbourne and regional Victorian centres.

You need to top up before your journey, and ensure you touch on and touch off at a Myki reader as you travel.

A Myki card costs $6.00 and can be purchased and topped up at most convenience stores. Average weekday travel prices are $8.20 and weekends are $6.00

Visit www.ptv.vic.gov.au/tickets/myki for more information on the Myki Card.

More information on all public transport in Melbourne can be found on Public Transport Victoria's website: www.ptv.vic.gov.au

FOOD PRICES

Woolworths, Coles and Aldi are the main supermarkets around Melbourne, you will find one or more in almost each suburb.

Woolworths and Coles now do home delivery for convenience. A weekly shop per person is approximately $100.

When eating out, Melbourne is a multicultural state, we have options from all over the world.

Thai, Italian and Chinese meals are very popular take-away options at roughly $25 per dish.
